“ I was just informed that Corey passed away; I am deeply saddened with his passing since I remember him coming over to my house since the woods were a link between my neighborhood and Rowe Rd. He always made me laugh and smile while talking to him. You could see the happiness and love that he had inside of him through his eyes. I am going to miss him! He was definitely one of the people that you would be excited to reconnect with before and after the high school reunion.

Rest in peace, Corey
