“ Michele, I will never forget when you brought him up to the office in the Howard Street building... he was soft spoken and polite and what an amazing artist! His pencil drawings were incredible and meticulously detailed. His artwork was outstanding! I'm so glad he was able to use that talent in his life. He positively and irrevocably changed, decorated, and blessed the lives of all the people he touched! Knowing that fact is hopefully a heartwarming blessing. He lived true to himself and brought a precious daughter, a beautiful version of himself into this world. While he's gone way too soon... I hope these amazing creations help his memory and his beautiful soul live on! 💕🙏🕊️ Sending you and your family my deepest sympathies and condolences. Dawn
