“ David,
You will be missed. I've never forgotten the many days you would stop by after work to check on us as kids. You'd say "I just wanted to see what you guys were up to". I have to say, we pretty much knew what time you were coming so we looked pretty innocent.

When the brothers and sisters got together: Eddie, J.D., David, Kenny, Bruce, Jerry, Ronnie, Delores, Yvonne, Ruthy, Kay and of course the matriarch of the family the Mother 'Effie Jane Griffin' and all of the nieces and nephews, the discussions always seem to turn to a heated dialogue about what REALLY happened in Rochester. Older siblings debated what the younger thought they remembered. Those times were precious and missed dearly.

David, you are loved and you've left a missing link in our family chain but our memories and love will keep you alive in our hearts.

*Your Niece,
Vanessa*
