“ Deacon Jones will truly be missed. That beautiful voice has been silenced. He always remembered my mother during her hospital stays. He would visit or call her and have prayer. Genell, God makes no mistakes. Deacon Jones fought the good fight. He is now with the Lord in heaven. God bless. Rosie Jordan and Mother Rosetta Franklin

“ "There is a bright side somewhere" is indelibly etched on our minds. That was the song that our "song bird" sang years ago at our annual revival. Deacon Jones sang with feeling and conviction. We know he has found that bright side in that land that is fairer than day. Rest in peace our brother.
