“ *Thank you Uncle Earcy
For being the man I looked up to
As a little girl because of you and auntie I learned what true love was supposed to be until we meet again gone but never forgotten in my heart forever back in the loving arms of God and your beloved wife*

“ Deacon Earcy E. Christmon Jr. was a devoted husband, a loving father, and a man after God’s own heart. He was consistently warm, welcoming, and gracious, making everyone feel at home in his presence. I will forever cherish the time we shared, and I am a better man for having known him. His life was a true blessing, and his legacy will live on through the love, faith, and kindness he so freely poured into others.

With love,
