“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Hill Family. I grew up just around the corner from their home and loved to come and visit them. He could always be seen doing something in the yard. You have my deepest sympathy. ”

“ My condolences to the family of the late Deacon Hill who were long time friends of my late parents Deloyd Sr & Bertha Brown. May the lord heal this family and Sister Bernice Hill at this time. Deacon Hill was very instrumental with my son picking him up for Sunday School when he was a little boy. He was a joy to be around and just a kind gentleman. Rest in Peace Deacon Hill, Job well done and you will be greatly missed by the Brown Family. ”

We are sorry to hear the lost of Deacon Hill. What a true patriach and such a dedicated man and devoted servant of God. I grew up in New Hope Baptist church and as long as I can remember from age 3, Deacon Hill was a true servant then. My parents thought the world of him and Mrs. Hill. The Allen and Jones Family send our sincerest condolences. May he rest in peace.

“ As neighbors of Mr. Hill I see him in my mind's eye mowing the lawn in a white shirt over the past 20 years. Always so friendly. In 2014 together were recognized by the Mayor of Pontiac for a Neighbor to Neighbor award. Please accept our sincere condolences. Pat and Rick David
