"It is always "double sorrow," for me whenever I hear of the passing of one of my childhood friends who grew up with me in the "village" on Fisher Street in Pontiac, Michigan! From her childhood days she was always "smiley" to me! A ray of "divine sunshine" every day I would see her! Even now viewing her picture she has me smiling!" May she rest in Him who is our Peace! Sincere condolences to the Family!

“ I am praying for her children and family. I have known Sister Foster for awhile. The main thing that sticks out to me was she never changed from day one. I met her before church, while attending a different church, and attending the same church eventually and she always remained the same. Many great laughs together and yes she will be greatly missed and forever loved.
