“ I remember "Nay" very well. We grew up in the Lancasters 1 door down from each other. We used to sit on my porch playing jacks with her girl Sheila B. And Lionel W. . Sadie, my heart goes out to you and the family. Praying our fathers comfort to you.

“ I met Renee just a short time ago and she had such a great impact on my life. I remember hearing about what she was going through and being nervous and anxious about how to act. She ended up being a comforter to me and teaching me that no matter what your going through you have to keep a positive attitude and fight till the very end. Until we meet again Renee Biffle. 🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰

“ My Dear Sister.

Even though you are not here with me physically, you will forever be in my spirit. You taught me love and how to accept it. I will miss "kidnapping" you and mama for the entire day and taking you guys on our weekend excursions. You prayed to have a sister, and in knowing that...I am truly blessed. I will forever uplift your name and be your number one fan. The question is: will we meet again? Of course we will! But in the meantime...I will take care of Bookie and mama and shield them from harm. You are the epitome of a good sister and if I had to take care of you again...I would do it a million times over. YOU, MY DEAR WERE WORTH IT.

Thank you Moon Family for making this process easier than one could expect.

"Nay, the Christmas Angel" That sounds nice:)
