Denise K. Thompson was born November 14, 1955 in Pontiac Michigan to the late Erma Jean and Moses Thompson. She was dearly loved and her presence will be greatly missed. She attended Pontiac Central High School. And received her GED she also took various classes to continue higher learning. Denise was employed a number of years at North Oakland Medical Center of Pontiac, Michigan; and was employed with Meal on Wheels. Her hobbies included crocheting crafts, playing games on her phone and eating home cooked chicken and dumplings with rice, tea-cakes and sweet potatoe pie prepared by her friend Evangelist Avie Nell Carr. She loved talking to people about God. Denise was a handfull. She was outgoing and she didn't take "No Stuff off of Nobody". She spoke what was on her mind and she nicknamed herself as (Hard Core). She had a witty sense of humor

Ms. Thompson leaves to cherish her memory: four sisters; four brothers and a host of other relatives and loyal friends including special friends, Evangelist

Avie Nell Carr, Felicia White, Peggy Hardiman, Effie Staton, Phyllis Clemons and Helen Butler..

Ms. Thompson was preceded in death by her parents, Erma and Moses Thompson and her sister, Denise Thompson.

“ Denise was a pleasure here at West Manor. She always had a smile or a joke for the staff and other residents here. She was loved very much and will certainly be missed. This building will not be the same without her.
