“ Dean has been apart of our family forever; since the age of 16. He and my sister were together for over 20 years, having three(3) children together (Toye', NaNah and Tee). I will truly miss his fun-loving personality, he would make you laugh even when you wanted to be sad. He refused to be sad, or worry. He lived life "just for today." I absolutely enjoyed knowing him, and will always acknowledge him through his three girls. Even in the end he joked about leaving this world asking that everyone "celebrate" his death, because he wouldn't have to suffer anymore. So whenever we talk about Dean, we laugh to keep from crying; laughing so hard that we cry; cause there was nothing sad about Dean. He created countless, laughable memories throughout his life; and laugh-on we will my brother and friend. LoveOOXX, RIP... your sister, Neki
