“ I am so very heartbroken to hear of my nephew's passing. I am grateful that we talked before he went into the hospital. Derrick and I agreed that God had the final say. We do not understand, but God does. I pray that God's grace, mercy and love will keep you, and help you.

“ Dee you illuminated every room you stepped into!!! Your beautiful heart and comedic personality greatly impacted the world around you! Your presence blessed and entertained everyone who encountered you! Though you were fun and funny most of the time, we had many serious talks. You motivated and inspired me in every conversation we had, never succumbing to your circumstance. Im so grateful God saw fit to cross our paths!

“ Mannnn where do I start? I can take it back to Johnson days... Or to Pontiac Central B.A.B or you being the father of my beautiful neice and nephews..guess it don't matter.. you have been my friend for as long as I can remember and I am going to miss the laughs, the stories, us making that whack CD hot on the streets on the way to Atlanta, the sing a longs, and just your presence. You're free now D..You fought a good fight. Tell your mom I said I miss her...and I'll see u again..
