“ Today you must remember that... â??Death begins with lifeâ??s first breath
 And life begins at the touch of deathâ??
 Do not stand in reserve silence
 As quiet tears leave their mark on your face
 Celebrate my death
 As I did my life
 And find comfort in the memories of me
 Love me from afar
 As my essence will always linger there
 In the depths of your heart
 Do not allow regrets of words said and unsaid
 To run rampant in your mind
 For I forgave you since that moment
 As the wind kisses your skin
 Feel my touch
 When the birds sing
 Hear my gentle whisper
 Smile ...with the sun and hear my laughter
 In the depths of your soul

Do not grieve for me

For our time together was always special
You were a part of me and I am still a part of you
My life could not have been more complete
Know that when you search the nightâ??s sky
For that shooting star
You all were my wish come true
I loved, because you all loved me
So now I ask you to grab hold
Of all that we have shared and as
I dance on a moonbeam
Content in a new serenity
Do not forget
But do not stand still

*For I will always be there
Each time you hug
Each time you speak
Each time you reach out and care
I exist now
In every thought
Every time you love
Every breath you take
Every heart beat
I am in your spirit
Now and forever
Loving you in silence
Not even death can take that from us*
