“ I woke up this morning with you on my mind and in my heart ❤️ still feel so unreal that you are not here with us. Family has always been important to me, keeping the family together and without the unnecessary burden of Drama because God is love and in His Love cast out all fear of allowed. Thank You for helping to raise us and keep your eyes on us, making sure nothing happened to us coming up. I will miss our conversation and Sister Brunches and coming up everyday to take care of you even to the end. I thought lost you when they placed you in the nursing home but being on duty that night as a Chaplain I was still able to keep my commitment to you and be there for you when you needed me. I Love D and you're FOREVER in my heart ❤️ thoughts and prayers

“ I really tried to write a letter on the website the purpose was to ease the burn I feel 'cause Grandma is gone, I'm mad she's not here— and it fuc hurts I want the pain to stop omg I hate this, God, it's never gone I wake up every morning with a knot, I'm so afraid she's not Around to hear me talk I reach out and I beg to God to show a sign or move an object anywhere, just make it drop I need to know she's not lost in time or stuck in thought I thought that I could handle loss, but not when Grandma is what I lost The storm will slowly pass, and time relieves the pain I have And she will always be the voice that nags me when I'm feeling sad And if I never have another chance to have a chat I hope you know you raised a man, and damn, I'll always love you, Grams

“ Diane and me the two duo. We started off together in the same apartment. She worked during the day at General Motors and I took care of her daughters as my own alongside my daughters. You looked out for me until I was able to stand on my own feet, thank you.

I will forever miss my big sister
