“ Don although I only knew you through Yatta, you were always such a bright light. He had endless stories to share about all your good times together. I am glad you got to come to meet and see the kids and that Yatta was able to see you last month. Rest easy, and I pray you family is able to navigate this difficult time.

“ What a kind man he was, and I was so sorry to hear about his loss : (I worked with him and also had the pleasure of seeing his dad daily in the Chief's office while he was there... both SO funny and wonderful to work with. Thinking about the whole family now, wishing peace and comfort.

“ My sincere condolences to Mr. Gracey's family. I met Don 20 years ago when my son Bernard was murdered in Pontiac, MI. He was so kind and gentle with me. He explained the process and the role of each person involved in my son case. He was always willing to take my phone calls no matter how many times per day I called. May God give rest to his soul.

“ My deepest sympathy and condolences to the Donald Gracey Jr. family. I have known ALL of the second generation and some of the third family members since my arrival to Pontiac in 1952 and I have shed many tears and felt some of the heartache. Can I say, I even tasted "Grannies" desserts. Beverly Gracey Ellsworth was one of my best friends from 5th grade and even into and through our raising children together. My Jeff and Angel refer to her, still, as "Aunt Bev" and I am Aunt Callie to hers.

I want to ask "how long LORD." "So many, for so long." No answer comes. What does come is HIS grace, comfort, goodness and love. Those who know HIS words and follow HIS Commandments faithfully feel HIS peace. Life (birth) and death will continue until that final day when our SAVIOR returns to claim all of HIS children. Until then, remember HIS greatest commandment "Love each other as I have loved you." Then ask HIM for strength and be a witness to others in need (love).

I can only imagine the huge reunion that would be taking place during this time in Heaven. That is, if I didn't know that scripture says HE will raise us from our sleep. HIS will be done. Rest in peace, Don Jr.

Love and blessings,

Callie Douglas Barge-Holloway
