Ms. Donna Jean Day was born on June 30, 1958 in Pontiac, Michigan to the union of the late Claude and Annie Lue Day. She accepted Christ at an early age and was educated in the Pontiac School System, where she graduated from Pontiac Central High School. She continued her studies and graduated from IBM School of Beauty and worked as a licensed beautician. Donna Jean "The Queen" as she was affectionately called by family enjoyed shopping, music, singing, planting and growing flowers, collecting photos, but most of all doing hair. She was known for her famous "macaroni & cheese" which she was often requested to make during family dinners, which she enjoyed as well. Her interests were her grandchildren and simply enjoying life. Donna was vibrant, care-free, happy, cared for others, and very straightforward. Even when her health began to fail, she continued to smile and say, "I'm Ok". Ms. Day leaves to cherish her memory: daughters, Angelina and Kara Day; sons, Ronald, Kadari and Andre Day; three grandchildren, Amarion, Kadar, and Obbie; siblings, Marcella (Angelo) Myers, Claudia Johnson, Victor Day, Claude Day Jr., Anthony (Pam) Day, Ammon Seay, Dave Brazil all of Pontiac, MI and Harold (Linda) Day of Texas; two sisters-in-law, Rose Jackson of Pontiac, MI and Virginia Day of Detroit, MI; one brother-in-law, George Scott of IL; two aunts, Alpha Little, Adalphra Allen of Pontiac, MI; one uncle, Henry (Kellie) Day of TX; and a special friend, Calvin Lyons; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Ms. Day was preceded in death by her parents, Annie and Claude Day; sister, Rosie Day-Scott; brothers, Freddie L. Jackson, Richard Day and Derrick Day.

“ Dear Day Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.
