

Donovan Westover

February 9, 1940 - December 6, 2007

Mr. Donovan James Westover was born February 9, 1940 in Brown City, Michigan the son of Orva and Carrie Westover. Mr. Westover worked for the Mattress Superstore. Don enjoyed spending time with his son, daughter and grandchildren and memories of washing his car with Michael his grandson and teaching him to play the guitar. He was such a wonderful man and was loved by so many. He greeted people if he had known them for years. Willing to help anyone in need, giving them the shirt off of his back even knowing he was still in need himself. For him, that did not matter he loved his children grandchildren very much he was the families "rock" he handled all our problems and supported them in whatever they did. Mr. Westover leaves to cherish his memory wife, Norma Westover; one daughter, Kimberly (Richard) Maclean,; son, Paul (Kelly) Henry; grandchildren, Brittney and Tyler Henry and Michael and Carrie MacLean; sisters, Iris Eschendal, Bonnie Quandt, Beverly Velez and Maxine Lang; nieces, Linda, Tina, Dawn and Cheri; nephews, Ronnie, Delbert, Bobby, Hayward, Larry, Eldon, Graham and Dion a host of other relatives and friends Mr. Westover was preceded in death by his parents Orba And Carrie Westover, sisters Wanda and Shirley and brothers Bud and Norman. The family would like to express special thanks to Maxine Lang, Beverly Iris, Tina and Gary, Theresa Bearden and Jeanie and Della.

Tribute Wall

MW

“ I am deeply sorry for your loss. I was Donovan's nurse at St. Joe's, he was an amazing man. I will keep your family in my thoughts. ”

---

Melissa Wiseheart - December 06, 2007 at 12:00 AM