As a wife, Doris made her home in her husband's heart showing him a incredible love that made them an inseparable couple (1 Peter 3:3-4). As a Mother, Doris lived a life fully devoted to her family, raising a faithful daughter (Proverbs 31:28) that courageously and selflessly left all she knew, "honored to care" for her parents in their later years. And finally as a woman of God, she left "all of us" a tender hearted soul, full of faith (1 Timothy 3:11), full of love and full of compassion looking for only the best in God's people. Doris Cummings' legacy is a quiet grace that is be a model to emulate, sorely missed by us witnessed by many, but never ever forgotten.
