“ I can see your smiling loving face at my mothers home when Daniel was killed. I see that Millionaire cake you brought. I thank God I had the opportunity in the summer to sit down with you and just laugh and talk. You were such a little social butterfly that day. You came back into the neighborhood to say hello to the Hickman family and me. I thank God for the moment at the gas station two weeks ago. I wish now we could have spent much more time together. We had the best life growing up on Prospect. You were so funny and kind. Your laugh is one of those laughs that one will never forget. I asked God to not allow anymore funerals for me this year. Daniel's was just a tad bit much for me. I did have the opportunity to fellowship with you at your mothers during your nephews home going. I so enjoyed you and your entire famiy as we tried to do that Wobble. I say this..... I will miss you very much. I once again have lost someone and realized I wish we had spent more time together. Life sometimes pushes us in different directions. The one thing I can say... Is that true friends may not see one and another for a season or two, but the thing is when we run into one and another it is like we never parted. I love you very much!!!
