My prayers are with the entire family. Irv was very respectful gentleman, I'll never forget the friendship between us as we grew up competing against one another in middle school and later high school sports. The competitiveness grew a friendship and I'm proud to call Irv my friend.

“ The Burkett Family sends their deepest condolences and sincere sympathy to the family of one of the world's greatest of all time. I want to thank the family for sharing Earlvn with me, even though I wish it could've been longer. One thing about Earlvn was he went beyond his means to help everyone, and I would lie if I said I agreed with him, because I was constantly on him telling him he needed to say no and to take a break. Sometimes he would, sometimes he wouldn't. But hey that's Earlvn. But he taught me another blessing in life " even when you can't you can and even when you can you can't ".... I know for a fact when he made his transition he talked to the King for a very, very, very long time (lol) and told him who he was and what he was about. So when I get there I know I'm going to be greeted with some BBQ love ribs....REST UP MY BUDDY, MY FRIEND. YOUR JOB HERE IS DONE❤️💔🖤

Sending heartfelt condolences to the Walker-Croskey family. Fellow EMU Alumnus Ervin Walker was one of the most genuine, generous and humble people I've ever known. As an athlete he was years ahead of his age. One of my fondest memories was playing sports as kids growing up in the Lakeside Projects. Erv was so gifted as an athlete at the age of 6, that he played and dominated in tackle football against us teenagers. When it was time for us older kids to pick sides for a football game, little Erv was always one of the first to be chosen.
