Mr. Bell will lie in state in the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home from 1:00PM-8:00PM Tuesday.

Eddie James "Frog" Bell was born on October 30, 1957 in Livingston, Alabama to the late John & Mary Bell. He was the third eldest of nine children born to this union. Eddie confessed his love of Christ at an early age, being baptized alongside his oldest brother, John W. Bell, Jr. at Friendship Missionary Baptist Church. He would often study with Brother Roy White. In later years he joined Shiloh Baptist Church in Pontiac, MI. Eddie received his education through the Pontiac School District before working at Fisher Body Plant in Pontiac, MI for a brief time; meanwhile deciding to master his craft of being a "hands on jack of all trades", where he would later put those skills to use working at Moorehouse College in Atlanta, GA with good friend David Whitters. He also enjoyed spending time with his dad & getting fussed at while working on lawn mowers & other equipment during summer months. Eddie made friends easily due to his lighthearted sense of humor, a few of them include: Andy "Scandy" Hawkins, family but also friends, the Powell family. He also had a special bond with best friend, Judy Harris. He lived for family events, he loved good music, especially jazz, and most of all, Frankie Beverly & Maze. Eddie will always be remembered for the affectionate nicknames he would give those around him, his hearty laughter, and his care-free spirit.

Eddie leaves to celebrate his life, loving children, Eddie James Applewhite and Edlisha J. (Robert Hayden) Harris-Bell; grandchildren, Jayshawn Applewhite, Robert Hayden III, DeMayor Applewhite, Rahmuad Hayden, Klarity Applewhite; siblings, Leola (Eugene) Carter, Raymond (Barbara) Bell, Lorenzo (Audra) Bell, Al (Keisha) Bell, Derrick Bell Sr., Leon Bell, and Sharonda Bell; 3 aunts, Armanda Ellis, Leola Williams, and Eartha Bell, 1 uncle, Willie (Sandergetta) Bell. 15 nieces, and nephews; 14 great nieces & nephews and a host of additional caring family and friends.

Mr. Bell was preceded in death by his parents, Mary Louise and John W. Bell, Sr; grand daughter, Emonie Applewhite, brother, John W. Bell Jr., and dear friend, Phillip "Fast Phil" Anderson.
