“ Edith was my older cousin, but we were raised like sisters. She held my hand when I was afraid and protected me from things that I was too young to understand in the world. The experiences we shared together as children and young adults helped shape me into the woman I am today. My most heartfelt condolences go out to her handsome young men. Your mom was one of the strongest women I've ever known. Though her body is gone, I pray that her loving spirit will last a lifetime in all of your hearts. I love you all to life!
