“ Dear Newbern Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.

“ There are so many memories focus around our young years at our Grandmother's home. Edward's was always teasing my brother and I especially me because I love to eat. So while I was eating he would go through the house a yell "Oink Oink". I would be so mad but it did not stop me from eating or hime from teasing.

He will be missed. Love Marvetta aka Renea
