“ Elder Stewart and I worshipped at Holy Ghost Church in Flint. I met him over 50 years ago. The Pontiac saints would come to Flint on Sunday and we'd eat at Pastor (Granddaddy) Strong's house after church. Elder Stewart was a great cook and conversationalist, a soft-spoken minister and a Man of God. It was a joy to fellowship with him. Elder Stewart has finished his course and will receive his crown of righteousness. Prayers for the family. Rest well Elder Stewart.

“ CYNTHIA SAMPLES lit a candle in memory of Elder Alonzo R Stewart, Jr

I know that he was a godly Man of God and loved the Lord. If you knew him like I did; you would just gravitate towards his pleasant personality, He was just a wonderful person and a great examples of one of God's chosen vessels', "many are called; but few are chosen."

Family I'm sorry for your loss but knowing that he is in God's care; this along will cover your hearts in peace for evermore.

“ Elder Stewart was an awesome man of God. At Holy Ghost Church of God in Christ, he was of great support to my grandfather, the late Pastor Herman H. Strong. Elder Stewart was a man of integrity who lived and spoke with conviction and wisdom. He was personable and always spoke words of encouragement. My sincere condolences to his family.
