Sending my heartfelt condolences to the Cross family. Mrs. Cross had a pleasant and caring persona every time I had the pleasure of being in her presence. Rosalind (Cheek) hold tight to the many memories you had and shared with your mom. May Gods grace and peace sustain you as you navigate through life knowing that your mom's spirit remains with you.

Mrs. Cross or Mama Cross, as we lovingly referred to her, was such a beautiful person. I loved being around her and her husband, Mr. John Cross and witnessing their conversations and interactions. She had a wonderful sense of humor and delivered it all with love and grace. Her absence from this earth will be felt forever by her family and friends. Cheek, you know my arms will always be stretched out in love no matter how far away we are from each other.

“ Ms Cross will forever hold a place in my heart. As was stated during the service, she was a talker! When you held a conversation with her it didn't end until she had the whole story. I was Blessed to come to know her thru my volunteer efforts with the M.A.L.D. & M.R.N. mentoring programs which Mr Cross was also involved with. Ms Cross would attend functions with Mr Cross. When she found out that I made a mean banana pudding (from scratch), she would request it from time to time. She will be missed & I will keep up with Roz in her & Mr Cross's absence. 😊😊

“ To my beautiful Soror, Rosalind (Cheek) Cross. I send my sincere sympathy during this very difficult time. I wish I could have been present, but I did have an opportunity to join you on line. Your mother was definitely a wonderful person. I will always cherish the first time I was blessed to engage with her personally. You were not able to be here for one of our Sorors, whom you are very close to. But Mrs. Cross literally took your place for you (and said that.) She was comforting, kind, most elegant, and gave us that genuine smile and laughter. We totally enjoyed her. As you move through this difficult season, please know that your sorors will always be here for you, no matter what. May God continue to grant you comfort, peace and healing. Much Love, Rhonda Farrell-Butler

“ Rosalind and Family:

Your mom was a wonderful person. I can remember she and husband Mr. John Cross speaking up and out at a community protest in 2003 about plans for a 300 bed work site for parole inmates to work in and live in the old Kmart building at Glenwood plaza.

We did not mind for them just to come to work and leave but, to live there was an issue, because of the unwanted extra traffic and potential problems of that many people in one place. I was impressed with both Mr. and Mrs. Cross.

Mrs. Cross was so funny when she told of her work in the schools and how she met her true love Mr. John Cross, I believe in the 1950's at Memphis Library for Colored. That was the way of the South at that time.

I cherish the moments of eating lunch with her and the other ladies at the Salvation Army before Covid 19..where they had a real chef cook lunch for everyone who came in. I really enjoyed our talks at her home, she was one of my Avon customers back in 2017. I, no longer sell with them.

I thank God for giving Mrs. Cross nearly 100 years of life and sending this great woman our way.

God bless the family, God bless Everyone

“ Roz, my prayers are with you during this time. I know what it's like to lose a mother. I've known you and your parents since I was about seven years old. Even though we try to prepare ower selves for such a time like this, the pain is undescrivable. I pray God heals your heart with many wonderful memories and peace. Roz, I am soo sorry about your loss of your mother. She was one of my favorite former co worker at Twain, and we looked forward to talking with each other over the phone. I don't know anyone that took care of their parents like you did. What a loving daughter you are. An example to all of us that have aging parents. Praying that God will comfort you during this time.
