“ Our prayers love and heartfelt condolences go out to the family! May God embrace and grant you peace and understanding during this process. Eric was a friend and big brother figure in my life for over 55 years. Never a cross word. We shared a passion for fashion and debate. Brother loved green. He will always be remembered for his style sense. Always a presence in Pontiac. An Eastside King. One that will be truly missed. To Geraldine and the family Gods blessings! James Searcy

“ *As cousins, we grew up together as youngsters to young adults. I would find myself traveling to Pontiac from Detroit hanging out on Midway. Our parents were very close and socialized together often. However, as time would have it, we grew older and apart, only in contact on occasions. Eric was a kind gentleman. I only wish I knew of your situation so that I could have had the opportunity to express my kindred love and share some memories. I am thankful to Eric for extending a hand and being helpful to my former colleague and the former Mayor of Lansing who was considering a move to Pontiac. Rest in Peace cuz.
