“ I first met Erica on Dwight and liberty during the building days , she was around when I had my Lil girl. She would come over and keep me company . we shared a lot of memories, I'm sad that she's gone, but to be absent from the body is to be with Christ our daddy god ! I will always love u and miss you . be Angel for all who need u . keep that gorgeous smile and beautiful spirit💔💔💔💔💔💔

“ I watched you grow up in the church, I was praying for you each time the devil tried to attack you in your body, and I was shocked when I heard that you were no longer with us. But through it all, I thank God for allowing us to enjoy this lovely spirit for the time that we were allowed to have her with us

“ I remember Eric following behind her sister trying to keep up as they would walk to Crofoot and how she never had a frown on her face. I also remember hearing of her struggles with her illness at such a young age. I must say, she apparently didn't think of her illness as a crutch because she kept living, doing her and having a family to keep her spirit for ever around. Condolences to the Harris Family Ms. Stratton & Family (Shayna, Shawna, Rickey & Kevin)

“ I just want to thank you for blessing my family with Jeremiah (Tank). Jeremiah was born a month after my father died. We had been through so much already, but when Jeremiah was born he brought so much joy to our lives. We will make sure that he is well taken care of and just love on him with everything in us. I know that you suffered with your illness for a long time and I have watched you remain strong for your children. You can rest now. Sending our condolences to the Harris family. Love, the Crockett and Lawrence families.

“ Its always so heartbreakingly sad to hear of someone you went to high school with being called to be with the lord. Especially at such a young age. When we're young we imagine we will live to be old and gray as will our children. But tomorrow is never promised and for whatever reason god saw it best you be with him. May you rest in heaven I will definitely keep your children and family in my prayers during this hard time.

“ As I sit here reading this obituary I'm reminded that it is important to always let our loves ones know that we truly love them because tomorrow isn't promised to anyone.

So it is with a heavy heart that I'm saying good bye on this earth to my niece who I dearly love, for I'm certain that at this time she rest with God who in all his glory will find a place for her in heaven, taking her pain away.

So my condolences to Walter, Darwin, Ernest, NeNe, Shaundra, Ebony and of course my sister Dianne who at this time in my opinion has shown thru her faith in God that this family will endure.
