“ For I am persuaded that neither death nor life nor angels nor principalities nor powers nor things present nor things to come nor height nor depth nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God...

Romans 8:38,39

If we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's.

Romans 14:8

Sorry for your loss. I remember her as a very special person. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family.

“ My heart is heavy right now, but the scripture says "To be absent from the body is to be PRESENT WITH THE LORD", so Angie is alright. She was saved and lived a saved life. I remember us growing up in church together, New Liberty, Elder Allison and Zion Tabernacle Elder T. Singleton my grandad, we fellowshiped all the time together. We had some of the best times, from youth on up, and talk about singing Sis Loretta would have it together. Jane I Love you, and the entire Russell family everything is going to be alright. Angie just went home to a place we must get to.

“ Losing someone that was truly loved is difficult. The Bible comforts us at Ecclesiastes 3:11. "Everything he has made pretty in its time. Even to time indefinite he has put in their hearts."
