“ Sis. Evelyn, was an excellent communicator, servant, strong in the Lord, hopeful, full of praise & would speak her mind then had intense humor that could hurt your side. She didn't hesitate to support or hold someone's hand. She did not encourage pity but to rise up and try again. I miss her wonderful laughter and wisdom! God bless each of you, and continue to honor her in your righteous walk. Love ya!

“ Sister Ford was always asking about my well being and offering salutations and prayers conveyed through Mom. She had a wonderful smile and good hugs and I always looked forward to greeting her after every service. I remember her encouragement after my running for Mr SWCC having come in second in national, she could see my disappointment and reminded me of how far I'd come and that I should see the blessings in coming from winning Michigan all the way to Nationa. She had that ability to bring perspective in a spiritual way of great affirmation. I'll sorely Miss her

“ I Loved & Respected Evelyn Ford. Nee Nee was not only a Sensitive Soul but also an Amazing Woman, Wife & Mother. I first met Evelyn Ford (my Husband William's Sister) when she received her Masters Degree. I had to meet this Phenomenal Woman who waited until her Children were all graduated to pursue her education. Nee Nee was an Inspiration & I shared her Awesome Story with other Women. I will miss her Physical presence but will forever feel her Spiritual presence. Love, Blessings & Strength to her Family. May Peace be like a River.
Lovingly Submitted,
