“ To: My Brother Verl,

Even though we came from different parents, you were and will always be my brother. Ms. Mary always treated me the same as you. If you got something...she made sure I had it too. One of my greatest memories was when your mom's worked at Garlock's Drug Store. She would come home with a pack of chocolate chip and sugar cookies with a 6 pk of Pepsi. Lord knows you loved your Pepsi, but without hesitation, you would always get out 2 and pass me one. Even though we never talked about it, I know you knew my family struggled and I had nothin, but you never judged and always looked out for me even though I was the oldest. That is only one example of the many things I will remember about you. I share all those crazy hood stories we lived with my son. I think he knows more about you than anyone else I grew up with. You, my brother are a true example of "My brother's Keeper" and I love you for it. Tell Ms. Mary, Pops and my Mom I said hello..until we see each other again bro.

Love ya

“ Growing up I knew you as my big brother and I loved to follow you....I remember you fighting your dogs in your parents garage and my Dad being so mad... You always said if you wanted to do something you was gone do it... You and Joe taught me all the hustles ...I will never forget you or your birthday joke ! Rest peacefully I'll see you when I get there

“ Uncle Punkin no words can describe how I feel right now. I'm going to miss you so much. We shared every life event with each other. You have watched over me since the beginning of time. I shared a story with Katura the other day. When you were 2 years old you got me out the bed, had my legs just dangling and carried me in the livingroom to my mom and granny. Then you said " the baby was crying", My mom said she was so nervous and granny told her not to yell or you would drop me! Anyway, rest peacefully uncle Punkjn I know you're in a better place.
