“ My grandpa was a very honest man, and loved his family so much, still hurts he had to leave so soon. I'll always have so many great memories of my grandpa, to going out and getting blue ice cream to just sitting and talking, he always told me to love myself and never care what others have to say, he really was a father figure in my life and I appreciate everything he did for our family and especially me. Even though I miss him deeply and dearly I know he's with his family in heaven and he's not in pain, I will forever miss him.
