“ Nitty My friend you were there for me thru it all good and bad times, you would say let that shit go, and get in that kitchen and do what you do. I asked how can you be so calm and you said I can't control other people I can only control how I react. That said a whole lot. I'm gonna miss our talks and your laughter. My dear friend ❤️ I'm missing you. You always said just be patient your day is going to come and you're going to shine and really be able to help the people cause that's what you do. Missing you 😭 forever my friend I'll never forget you. You're one of a kind.
