“ To my son Frederick junior.... Words cannot describe the sorrow and hurt in my heart at this time.... But looking back on being your father I couldn't ask for a better son. You everything a father could ask for in a son. You are kind, soft spoken and you always kept your word. As your father I never had to worry about you getting into trouble or hang it around the wrong crowd because that wasn't the type of young man you were. You are all that is good in me. My proudest moment as your father was when you walked across the stage has a high school graduate. The joy and happiness I felt that day could not be described. Your brother Porter in your sister Monica loves you dearly and your memory will live on in them as well. We love you son!! I love you!!

“ Thomas Family,

Words can not express the deep sorry I am feeling with the loss of Little Fred, I have so many good memories, visiting with Little Fred at His Grandparent's home. Mrs. Glory Thomas and the Late Judge Preston Thomas. Little Fred only wanted to eat grilled cheese sandwiches when He was young, it was so funny to me. I thank God I can smile when I think about Little Fred during this sad time. But that's how God works sometimes to get you through it.

You have my deepest sympathy.
