“ To the dearest man ive come to know. You will be missed each and every day. Every day you filled the house with so much laughter and the best stories i loved to listen to. You was always so full of spirit when you had your good days you never would of known you would leave us so soon. I miss your laughter and all the stories you told. I miss speaking to you and telling you i love you. May you rest in peace until i see you again. Love you.
