“ To all the Edwards Gentlemen: Kenny, Rodney, Reggie, Cedric, James and Carlos.

Your mother was a great lady. I will always remember her kindness to myself and my sister one cold January day after school. We had to walk home from school because our parents were still at work when school got out.

It was below zero that afternoon. Mrs. Edwards and Cedric, James, Rodney were in the car, she pulled over in that long green Cadillac car and gave us a ride.

The Edwards lived across and up the street from us and we could see their back yard and would laugh when she made Kenny make the garden in the back.

He was in a hurry and was swinging a pick for the ground fast and she was yelling orders at him.

She raised great men. God Bless the family and God bless everyone.
