Mr. George Gage Sr., was born April 27, 1934 in Ferriday, Louisiana, to Mary and George Gage, he later came to Michigan at the age of 16, where he began working for St. Joseph Mery Hospital, Oakland, he faithfully served them for 47 years, after which time he retired. He was united in marriage to Barbara Louise Jones in 1954. During this union they had five children. George and Barbara divorced for some years, but were reunited in holy matrimony until his passing. George led a very productive work life while raising his family. He worked for Pontiac Motors, Fox and Hounds, Kingsley Inn and Oakland County. He loved watching westerns; one of his favorites was "Hop Along Cassidy". If you couldn't find this VHS tape the house was in trouble! He loved to cook foods that the family did not care to eat (some of which they couldn't make out what it was at times). Mr. George Gage Sr., leaves to mourn his memory: wife, Barbara Louise Gage; six children, Madeline Jones, Lola Jones, George Gage Jr., Mariett (Kenneth) Smith, Rhonda (Quinto) Collins, Cedric (Felicia) Gage; one sister, Martha Reed;

mother-in-law, Madeline Walker; sixteen grandchildren; twenty-six great-grandchildren. Mr. Gage was preceded in death by his eight brothers and sisters and his son Warren Michael Jones. The family would like to express special thanks to Hospice of Pontiac, Michigan, Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital Physicians, Nurses and Staff and to Dr. Kenneth Chun.
