“ Mr.Jacob was a kind and quiet person. A man who loved his church and he was a faithful member to the very end. A man who stould TALL. If he was sick or having a bad day you would not have known it, he was always full of joy. He never would complain. Everytime the church doors opend he was always there.It was TRUELY a blessing to have cross paths with such nice people like Mr.Jacobs who come very far and few. He will be truely missed. I am sorry about the loss of your family member.I will keep the family in prayer
