In her later years, she didn't party as often, but loved having people around her while she cracked jokes. She enjoyed cooking it was her passion she would always say "If I can't do nothing for you, I could at least feed you." Everybody knew you could get a plate at Ms. Tate's house. She loved her children and grandchildren and great grandchildren and had nicknames for them all. Georgia enjoyed watching game shows it was one of her favorite past times, but what she loved most of all was her family!
