“ We were truly heartbroken and saddened to be told about the passing of Gerald. Words cannot begin to express the sorrow that we feel in our hearts. Gerald was a loving, funny and wonderful man that was truly one of a kind. Sam, Sonny Shaw and Herman Haynes' friendship with Gerald goes all the way back to McComb, Mississippi where they grew up and have known each other since their early childhood. It was in God's plan that the four of them had one last gathering together full of laughter and memories a few hours before Gerald's passing. My mother, Miss Willie, and Gerald worked together for the City of Pontiac and became friends over 40 years ago. I fortunately met Gerald and Carolyn through my mother's friendship with him.

Carolyn, Nikia, the entire Jennings Family: Please know that we love you both and we loved Gerald. He is gone, but never will be forgotten and we thank God for blessing us to be blessed with him. You all are in our thoughts and prayers. We are here for you. I have added some photos from Gerald, Sam and the McComb, Mississippi Boys that were taken this past July and August and also a photo that I had taken back in 1999 at one of the City of Pontiac's Department of Public Works Christmas parties. Rest in Heaven, Gerald! We know that you are making the angels laugh in Heaven with your amazing humor!!!!
