“ Harrison, Jacquie, Brian, Darren, grandchildren and family members. I was extremely saddened to hear of Gerald's passing. I am expressing my sincerest condolences and prayers. We go so far back but I still remember the years that I joined the big girls as a cheerleader at Jefferson Junior High School. By-pass a few years and there we were with babies taking day trips to Saks Fifth Avenue for shopping (Darren we sometimes left you home because you were too young, or so your mother said), along with just spending "good times" as couples raising little ones. Harrison I believe you were shooting pool and Chuck was working at the plant (temporarily).

You were there when Chuck passed and as I moved on to Texas to continue my life there. Harrison, my heart aches so much because I know what you truly are experiencing. On August 5th, just a little over a month ago, I lost my husband to cancer. No one would share the news about Gerald immediately because of what I was going through. The pain is indescribable.

Gerald was my first friend to spend the night with me when my mother decided we should move to Clarkston. Totally altered my life.

We went to Flint together for New Years Eve and to Detroit to visit one of your famous cousins. We only got to see the large bust of him that his mother had on display. Good old days and precious memories. There are no words of consolation that can heal this void. Jacquie, we visited when you lived not far from me in Plano, Texas.

Prayers do give me peace after many days of tears. I am trying to be good to me and that's what I wish for you.

Please contact me at any time. I would love to hear from you.

In HIS love and grace,

Callie Douglas-Barge-Holloway

Harrison & Family - We offer our sincere condolences to you as Geri transitions on to the next phase of her life's journey. We all dread the thought of our loved ones "moving on". But as the tears flow, think of all the wonderful memories you made as a family and the happy times you shared. Let the tears flow not in sadness but in CELEBRATION of GERI'S LIFE...the joy she brought to the world with that beautiful smile. She can now rest in peace in her new home with the Almighty God and lay the foundation for your eventual reunion. Our prayers are with you.

Gerald and Harrison Munson - 68 Years of love

I spoke to Harrison the other day when he called informing me, his ultimate pain of love; losing his beautiful wife Gerald. I was touched remembering their closeness growing up.

I think the last time I saw Gerald was at my nephew's wedding some years ago. It was a joyful moment, me seeing Harrison and Gerald, since I had not seen either of them since junior high school days.

Harrison and I renewed our friendship over the last few years, brought back the soul of old. Seemed nothing significantly had changed, except materialistic updates.

I remember growing up when I first met Harrison. His family had moved into our neighborhood; a stone throw from where we lived. Soon after, I met his girlfriend Gerald. That was some time ago. I did not realize exactly how long until, when Harrison pointed out to me the other day, that he and Gerald had been together for 68 years, he said! All I could say was wow! For better and worse, in sickness and health, till death do them part. They lived the definition.

Death of a love one is the ultimate hurt of pain. Especially when you have been beautifully blessed by that someone; who was a friend you held, kissed, laughed and cried with; been there when you came home; was a shoulder and strengths in times of weaknesses; morning breakfasts and evening dinners; sunsets and sunrises. A stellar and record breaking performance; box office hit; "68 years of love".

Always admired and inspired by Harrison and Gerald's love for one another.

I can only imagine the feeling of darkness, when the electricity has been turned off temporary. Yet, I believe if he could see the place

God has prepared for her, it would be envy.

"Peace be still."

I'm not gonna fear the storm

You are greater than it's roar

Even when my eyes can't see

I will trust the voice that speaks.

Giving me confidence

We will be together again

“ My condolences to Mr. Harrison Munson, Jackie, Brian, and Darren, and the entire family.

The Munson family were my neighbors when we first moved to the Pontiac Knolls in 1968,

Jackie was one of my first playmates. Mrs. Munson was always so nice and I was sad when they moved away. I will always remember Mrs. Munson for being so nice and kind. God Bless the family of the great Geri Munson.
