“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ Dear Anderson Family and Friends, I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. May it comfort you to know that The Most High God has resurrected humans before and He assures us He will do it again. (Acts24:15). God longs to bring back those who have fallen asleep in death to perfect health under paradisaic conditions right here on Earth. (Job14:14,15)

“ To Dorothy, Pat, Georgia and all the Cordell and Anderson Family, So very sorry to hear of the homegoing of your beloved sister. I met Geraldine at some of our church activities and of course she had that same sweet and kind spirit that permeates the family. At this time of sorrow we know that we can lean on God and he will bring us through these sorrowful times and peace will come. We send up prayers and love to the entire family.

“ My dear Sweet Sister, Twenty-four hours has pass since you took your flight and here I sit trying to process and absorbed that shock. I called you several times that dreadful day, I knew something was wrong when my calls went unanswered. I will truly miss your calls five times a day, just to hear you laugh about Sallie and Sugar. I will always love you for being the matricah when Mama left us. Gerald, my buddie, my friend, the days ahead are will be missing you. I will forever in my heart thank God for giving me a sister such as you.
With all my love, your baby sister....
