“ I shall remember Geraldine. I only know of 2 people who never called me the right name, to Geraldine and Sean I was Nesha, not Mesha. I remember telling Sean, "you know my name is MESHHA, TaMesha, right?" From many years in Lancaster, I would visit and french braid her hair and talk with her. She loved her son above everything else and she made sure he knew it. Even through the distance, she still called me, every now and then. She would tell me about her dreams and what they played for in numbers. She knew the numbers! I pray for her soul and ask God to grant her passage to be with her son and family again. I pray for comfort for her family and friends. You will be missed my dear.
