“ Aunt Lucile, Cousin Bobby and other family members,

On behalf of Uncle Dick's daughters, my sisters, Faye and Tommie Bass and our mother, Margaret Whitley, I offer our sincerest condolences in the loss of your daughter and sister. No words offered by us can truly comfort you, but the Lord can. So our prayer is that the Father will ease your pain, relieve your grief and fill your hearts and thoughts with your most precious memories of Jean and of how much she loved all of you. When I saw Jean for the first time in over forty years, she showed me nothing but love and happiness. I will always remember how lovingly she received me, how showed me about town and the many well-wishes she asked me to convey to my family in Tennessee.

With Love and Sympathy,

Eva Bass Moorman
