“ To the Clark family. Gwen will always be remembered by me as a big sister and mentor from Whittier to PCHS. She was not only beautiful but funny and loving. As a child, there were names of the older classmates that we will never forget, Gwen was one of those names. Sending Love and Peace,

“Oh, heart if one should say to you that the soul perishes like the body, answer that the flower withers, but the seed remains.” Khalil Gibran

The Lord in His infinite wisdom declared a need to bring back unto Himself our beloved Gwen. We are forever grateful for the life she lived and the tremendous impact she had on our family, her friends and those she touched. Most of all, I remain grateful that Gwen came into a saving knowledge and relationship with God through His Son Jesus Christ.

To her seed that remains, Torrion, Keywan and Nakitha, God's peace to you.

Gwen's life is reminiscent of the below song of the church. Her life and works were of serving, giving and compassion. Thank You Heavenly Father for giving us Gwen for a moment...

May the works I've done speak for me. When I'm resting in my grave, there's nothing more to be said.

May the works I've done speak for me. May the life I live speak for me

The works I've done, sometimes it seems so small, It seems like I've done nothing at all.

Lord I'm leaning and depending on You. If I do right, You're gonna see me through.

May the works I've done, let it speak for me.

*Lovingly,
Naomi*

“ Memories of my dear Gwen have flooded my mind and my soul is moved. Our relationship was beyond special and meaningful; she is a rare and precious niece. I trust God in all things and His decision to call His daughter home, I must accept. Knowing that Gwen is with the Father and the Father is with Gwen, makes the difference. I thank God for the time I shared with her even with this broken heart, I will cherish.

Little did I know my last conversation was our last, it will sustain me and be added into my mental vault of treasured things.

Mimi, Keywan, and Torrion, Auntie Louise is here when and if needed. The family will always love Gwen and each of you. God is a very present help in time of need.

“ Our beloved Gwen was dear to my heart and loved much by the family. I cannot believe she is gone so soon. Her smile is gone and her warm, compassionate heart has ceased to beat. God has called her home, from labor to reward. We thank God for the time she spent here with us. We are left with sweet memories of her that goes all the way back to her childhood. Always, smiling, always happy, always a delight to talk to, always left you feeling like you were important to her. That same love that was in our hearts for Gwen is there for those she left behind. Mimi, Keywan and Torrian, your mom will be watching over you from afar. You were very special to her and she is now interceding on your behalf. May God bless you and keep you and may the light of God's love shine on you and may He give you His peace!

“ I have known Gwen since I met her one day walking past where she grew up, knowing this house was behind the fence that separated our backyards. We also worked at the Oakland Press together, and we always had a conversation whenever we would run into each other. Going to miss her! Rest well, my friend!!!
