“ To Elder H. Ruth's family: To every joy that passes something beautiful remains. That is cherished memories of her poems, publications, her wisdom filled workshops and as my travelling partner to church events in KY, OH - I will always remember my friends kind, witty, supportive and professional demeanor. My sincere prayers and condolences are with you. Mother Fidelia White

“ Ruth will be missed. A sweet, talented educator and Woman of God. She shared the knowledge she acquired. I am glad she inspired and motivated me in her lifetime. Rest on my Sister. Comfort to the family.

“ I have known Ruth since we met at 44 State Street, where I was working at that time in a job training program. We remained friends, and I even visited the house on Prospect, if I'm correct. I would see her every now and then when I delivered the mail there. After I bid out of Pontiac, I would rarely see her! It would have been nice to see her again. So sorry for your loss!
