“ I have been knowing Chip since I have been 10 years old. I remember you going to Mr. Watkin's house learning to work on cars at a very young age, in the neighborhood. I also remember you coming over conversing with my older siblings. Chip has always been a sweet individual with a heart of gold, and would do anything for anyone. To have known him would have to loved him. From knowing Chip all these years who would have thought his children Ray Ray, Big Boy, Ty, Ty, would be first cousins to my oldest granddaughter. To the entire German family. May God touch each of your hearts, and give you all strength during this journey. "Trust inthe lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

“ To the German Family,

My prayers are with you all during your time of bereavement and sorrow. It seems like yesterday Row went home, and before Row, Cheddy Eddie. Keep the faith and know the God makes no mistakes. Can you see those brothers in heaven talking about cars and everything else? I will keep you all lifted up in prayer. Prayer is what will keep us strong. God Bless!
