“ Sandy,

I pray that God wraps his arms around you and your family and carry you through this difficult time.

Although death leaves heartache that no words or deeds can heal.

Memories remain that no one can steal.

May happy memories carry you through this sorrowful time.

My condolences

“ Death is something we all know is promised, but we are never prepared for. In times as hard as these, families need to latch on to one another closer than usual. Uncle Herbert was one of the most entertaining human beings I ever met, I couldn't wait to go to his house on Thanksgiving because I knew he would do something crazy. We loved you here on earth, but we know God will embrace and take care of you in Heaven. We will miss you.

“ Bryant Family

I am so sorry for your loss. May the Lord comfort and strengthen you all at this time. My love and prayers are with all of you.

Death leaves heartache only the Lord can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.

One of my most cherish memories of Uncle Herbert is, when we had the family picnic in the park and Uncle Herbert was so proud of all of his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren that came to the cookout. He entertained all of us with his great sense of humor.

Again, love leaves a memory no one can steal.

Love,
