“ Houston was a funny & silly man, he always made me and my daughters laugh...when he would recall stories about me as a kid than a teenage..

He , my brother Carmelo (poncho) and Fifty...were always clowning around...I used to tell them I wouldn't buy GM because of them....they couldn't be putting them together right!!! >>>

When he worked at the Silverdome and he met my daughter...he gave her so much grief at first, she called me and asked what I did to this man on her job...I went up to see who he was ... and when I found out it was Houston, we laughed and laughed because he was messing with her so she would tell on him... to see if I'd remember who he was....what a relief for her to find out we were good friends... after that I knew she was in good hands... he would watch over her for me like an uncle.

I was sadden to hear he was so ill, it hurts my heart that I was unable to see him during this time.. but I will always keep him in my heart and my prayers...as well as the family...all of you....Now I know who's going up there to take charge before I get there.

family know that your husband, father and grandfather,... will be missed by many....
