“ My heart is heavy concerning the home-going of Ineta Bond. She was a very strong, loving, Christian friend. She reminded me of the Eveready battery commercial. She took a licking but she kept on ticking. She was a determined woman and did not allow her illness or her disabilities to get her down. When tragedies came to my family Ineta was there either by phone or she was there with hugs and words of inspiration. She loved to talk about good things. She was such an inspiration to me. She often called and checked on my mom and other family members. She will be truly missed. She was always sharp as if she had just stepped out of Ebony magazine. I often teased her about coming over and getting some of the beautiful clothes and hats she was wearing. I told her I wanted to be like her when I grew up always sharp and strong not allowing anything to get me down. She just smiled and gave God all the praise. She was an amazing person. She had a lovely smile. Even thou she could not drive she did not allow that to keep her from going. She was an amazing person. As lonely as it feels without her, I know she would not want us to be sad because she is gone to be with our heavenly father. To her family and friends, I am praying that God will give you all everything you need to make it through this difficult time. Sorry I cannot be there with you, I am out of town. May God bless you. Yvonne, Helen and family members; my deepest sympathy in the passing of 'Neet.' Even at Jefferson Jr. High, she was one of the best dressed. Never have I ever seen her without being completely coordinated and fashionable. When we all meet again, I believe she will greet us with the most fashionable "white robe, shoes, etc." and we will all smile when we see her coming. Besides her outer appearance, 'Neet' possessed a beautiful and gentle spirit. I can still hear her sweet voice. I have NEVER, in my life known a tougher fighter like her. Nothing could hold her down for long. 'Neet' rest in HIS peace until HE calls you to "rise up again." We will all miss you for now but not for long.

To my BFF, Yvonne; Stay strong and we will share laughter, stories and joy tomorrow.

*With HIS love and blessings,
Callie*
