“ Thanks to all that come to send a final goodbye or farewell to my granddad. He defendantly had some memories with me as younger person! My favorite memory of him was him defending me with nuckleheads. He was sturn, but undercover the most fun guy ever! Ever amusement park, statefair and movie! We attended tlas a family...He was militant, and always had a joke. He made my grandmother happy! He took me to school, gave me his opinion, and was always ready and on time! I cant fit all the things i have to say or remember about him on this page but he clearly had an impact on my life. Thanks for supporting my family and accepting “Steps”; into his life. (Not sure why its written like that)

“ Mr. Lewis is the father of my church Altar sister and friend Ilene Lewis. We grew up together in the church and although her dad did not attend our church he supported us in all we did at church. He opened his home to me on the few occasions that I had over night visits with Ilene. Always a gentleman and nice God fearing man as long as I have known him. Blessings to you Mr. Lewis as you transition to the other side of life beyond the veil. I know you will continue to watch over all you loved and all who helped you. I know you were greeted by your wife, and others who had been watching over you and the family. Ilene, know that you are never alone, God will always be with you and your family that lives beyond the veil will love you and watch over you and the family.

“ I grew up living two doors down from Mr. Lewis. From kindergarten to graduating from high school. He was such a nice neighbor. His daughter Ilene is like a little sister to me. R.I.P. Mr Lewis. Anna Doris Seabrook Milton
