“ I Loved Jamaris, he was a delightful young man. He rode with Myself and my son Joshua to practice for 3 years between West Bloomfield and St. Mary’s. My son Joshua tells a story of how Jamaris convinced him to go with him to try a get 2 St. Mary’s girls numbers. Joshua said dad we failed tremendously and cracked up. It broke my heart upon hearing the news. As I told Joshy he broke down in tears in my arms. During the candlelight he broke down hard once again. My prayers is for Mom, Dad and Big sister that the hand of God give you abounding comfort. A beautiful joy has left the world heaven bound and will be Sorely Missed. God Bless, Coach James Gonzales.

“ Jamaris was such the cool guy. To be honest I have know his mother and father more the half my life, and it was truly a blessing to meet and share interest with this family, on and off the field. He definitely kept my son on his toes no matter what. By far one of the greatest and I know this is one star that will lite up the sky from now on. Rest perfectly in peace baby boy, you earn your wings. ”

“ Jamaris' greatest legacy was his love and respect for friends, teachers, coaches, and family. He would stand up for all people and speak up for what is right and good when he saw wrongs. Jamaris always put effort into his learning in class and tried to do his best at school. The only thing bigger than his smile was his heart. He made me a better teacher and person and will be greatly missed by all.
